Explain why the rebellions against William I from 1068-1071 failed. You may use the following in your answer:

- William's strong action
- Weak opposition from the rebels

You must also use information of your own. (12 marks)

Mark scheme:

1-3 marks points made

4-6 marks points/some evidence – not well organised into 3 PEE's not using sentence starters that link to question (No more than 5 marks without a point of your own)

7-9 marks points, some good evidence, some explanation, mostly organised into 3 PEE's using sentence starters in most places (No more than 8 marks without a point of your own)

10-12 marks 3 clear PEE's that use sentence starters showing focus on question, 3 accurate and detailed pieces of evidence to support every point and full explanation on each.

Feedback

	Peer assessment (tick or cross)	Teacher assessment
1. Clear point 1
2. 3-4 pieces of specific evidence
3. Explanation using phrase 'This meant the rebellions failed because…'
4. Clear point 2
5. 3-4 pieces of specific evidence
6. Explanation using phrase 'This meant the rebellions failed because…'
7. Clear point 3
8. 3-4 pieces of specific evidence
9. Explanation using phrase 'This meant the rebellions failed because…'

MAIN TARGET GOING FORWARD (CIRCLE) - POINT - EVIDENCE - EXPLANATION -

Green pen