Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) Policy

Mission Statement

All pupils should receive the appropriate level of Information, Advice and Guidance to enable them to make well informed and realistic decisions about their future in terms of education and careers and to support them in raising their own personal aspirations.

Vision

Castleford Academy believes that pupils should be appropriately prepared for the choices they make during their education and the choices they make in the future. Pupils should have an understanding of how their education will prepare them for the world of work. The pupils should feel confident in making key decisions about educational and career choices and have a clear understanding of the routes to achieve their goal. This preparation should be achieved through a variety of means such as impartial and independent one to ones with a qualified Careers Advisor, careers resources purchased by the academy and Taster Sessions at local colleges and Universities. Pupils will also have access to our extensive careers library and access a range of online resources and programs bought in for the academy as well as meeting a plethora of employers, further and higher education institutions and companies that offer apprenticeships.

Careers will be integrated into the pupils' experience for the whole curriculum and will be based on partnerships with external partners, businesses, educational institutions, apprenticeship providers, teachers, pupils and parents.

This policy document is published on the academy website and available to employers, staff, governors, parents and pupils. The policy and full careers programme has been developed in line with the DFE Careers Guidance and Access for Education and Training Providers January 2018 and the previous December 2017 version.
