

Lesson 6: Charlotte Dymond

Brain in Gear

- 1) What skills have you been asked to use in your assessment today?
- 2) How could you get focused to perform?
- 3) Have you prepared your performance well?

ABC: "Rehearsals are always necessary before a performance..."

Start the discussion:

- I believe that...
- In my opinion...
- One argument may be that...
- I'd like to make the point that...

Agree:

- I support your point because...
- Your opinion is reasonable because...
- I agree with your statement because...
- Your argument is a valid one because...

Build:

- Building on what... said...
- In addition to ...'s statement...
- I agree with your point, but should add that...
- Your argument is a good one, however it needs...

Challenge:

- This opinion could be questioned because...
- My own view is contrasting with yours because...
- I would like to challenge your argument because...
- I disagree with your statement for a number of reasons...

Lesson 6: Charlotte Dymond

Dress Rehearsal

Task:

A dress rehearsal is a final practise of your performance before you perform to an audience or tv/film camera crew.

Take 5 minutes to run over your performance now so you have had a good practise and got into character.

Lesson 6: Charlotte Dymond Assessment

Task:

Now it's time for your assessment – film your monologue performance as Matthew!

If you can't film your performance, as someone else to watch it and give you feedback.

Top Tip – using a prop or piece of costume in your performance can help you feel like the character.

Lesson 6: Charlotte Dymond Evaluation

Task:

Using Page 2 of your assessment booklet, write the following:

Strength Box – what went well? How successful were you in your performance?

Development – even better if? How would you improve your performance if you could do it again?
