Richard Dawkins is a well known biologist, author and atheist. He argues against the existence of life after death.

"Wouldn't it be lovely to believe in an imaginary friend who listens to your thoughts, listens to your prayers, comforts you, consoles you, gives you life after death, can give you advice? Of course it's satisfying, if you can believe it. But who wants to believe a lie?"

What do you think about Dawkins argument?

Why might some people agree?

Why might some people be upset by
