

Revision

BUILD YOUR SKILLS

Look at the list of 'I can' statements below and think carefully about how confident you are. Use the following code to rate each of the statements. Be honest!

Green – very confident. What is your evidence for this?

Orange – quite confident. What is your target? Be specific.

Red – not confident. What is your target? Be specific.

A self-assessment revision checklist is available on Kerboodle

I can...

- Describe the different ways that Christians worship, including liturgical, non-liturgical and individual, and explain when and why each form might be used
- Explain different Christian attitudes towards liturgical and non-liturgical forms of worship including reference to different denominations
- Explain what sacraments are and why they are important
- Describe the meaning and celebration of baptism and the Eucharist in at least two denominations, including reference to a source of wisdom and authority
- Describe different Christian attitudes towards the use and number of sacraments in Orthodox, Catholic, and Protestant traditions
- Give examples of different kinds of prayer, with reference to a source of wisdom and authority
- Explain when each type of prayer might be used and why
- Describe different Christian attitudes towards the importance of each type of prayer for Christians today
- Explain what pilgrimage is and why people go on pilgrimages
- Describe the activities associated with different Christian pilgrimages
- Explain different Christian teachings about whether pilgrimage is important for Christians today, with reference to Catholic and Protestant understandings
- Explain the origins and importance of Advent and Christmas
- Explain the origins and importance of Holy Week and Easter, with reference to a source of wisdom and authority
- Explain the meaning of the terms mission and evangelism
- Explain the history and purpose of missionary and evangelistic work in the Church, with reference to a source of wisdom and authority
- Describe some different ways that this work is put into practice by the Church
- Describe Christian attitudes to why evangelistic work is important for the Church and individual Christians
- Explain what the local church does in the local community and why, including reference to a source of wisdom and authority
- Describe the impact the local church has on the individual believer and the local area
- Explain the role and importance of the Church in the worldwide community
- Explain why the Church works for reconciliation
- Describe the problems faced by the persecuted Church
- Give different Christian responses to teachings about charity, with reference to a source of wisdom and authority
- Describe the work of Christian Aid – what it does and why.